

Alyssa Lynne St. Pierre

49 Bartlett Street
Jay, Maine 04239

Email:
alyssa.st@maine.edu

(207) 897-4977
(207) 320-1906

Objective

Seeking a position in substance abuse or crisis counseling while working specifically with young children and adolescents.

Education

University of Maine at Farmington

Major: B.S. in Rehabilitation Services

Specialization: Addictions and Psychosocial Rehabilitation

Minor: Psychology

Major GPA: 3.6/4.0

Intended date to graduate: May 2010

Mount Blue High School

Diploma

Graduated in June 2006

Employment

Food Preparation and Service Worker

March 2008-current

Madore's Market, Farmington, Maine

- Accept payments\ from customers and give necessary change
- Prepare food upon request
- Resolve customer complaints regarding food
- Compile receipts and close register down at end of shift

Delivery Services

June 2007-current

Melvin Manufacturing Corporation (MEMCO), Jay Maine

- Load and unload vans, trucks, other vehicles
- Turn in receipts and money received from deliveries
- Verify contents of inventory against goods loaded

Correctional Officers and Jailer

May 2008-September 2008

Franklin County Detention Center, Farmington, Maine

- Conducted head counts to make sure all inmates were present
- Checked mail for contraband
- Processed or booked individuals into the prison
- Monitored cell blocks

Cashier

April 2005-March 2008

Hannaford, Farmington, Maine

- Issued receipts, change, credits and refunds to customer
- Counted money in draws at beginning of shift to ensure all money was there
- Greeted customers entered my aisle

Volunteer

Field Hockey Clinic	Summer 2002-2003
May Walk for Children with Autism	Summer 2003-2004
Big Brother Big Sister	September 2003-June 2004
Brain Injury Walkathon	Fall 2006
Abuse Victims Donor	2006
Day of Service	Fall 2007
Lunch Buddies	Spring 2008
Day of Service	Fall 2008

Awards

Deans List: Fall 2008
Captain of UMF Field Hockey Team
Runner- up Western Maine Class C Finals (Field Hockey) 2003

Strengths

Ability to give full attention while listening to someone speak
Always looking for ways to lend a helping hand
Good computer skills
Organized and good time management
Strong judgment and decision making

References

Furnished upon request