

Amy Thongsavanh

12 Alpha St.
Auburn, ME 04210
(207) 783-3541 (home)
(207) 740-6199 (cell)
amy.thongsavanh@maine.edu

EDUCATION: University of Maine at Farmington
B.S. in Rehabilitation Services
August 2005- May 2009

Edward Little High School, Auburn, ME
Graduated- June 2005

Lewiston Regional Technical Center, Lewiston, ME
Early Childhood Occupations Education
September 2004-June 2005

SPECIAL

QUALIFICATIONS: Knowledgeable and skilled with children in a daycare setting and between the ages of six and seven, able to function individually, or in a group, effective communication skills, able to work under pressure, and coursework in the field of disability and rehabilitation.

EMPLOYMENT AND VOLUNTEER
EXPERIENCES:

Rehabilitation Services Mentorship Program Mentor
September, 2008- May, 2009
DUTIES: In charge of mentoring a first-year or transfer student who is new to the Rehabilitation Services major. It is my duty to help this student pick classes and to help him or her adjust to the major.

Auburn Parks and Recreation Department
(Summer Camp Counselor)
June 30, 2008- August 15, 2008
June 25, 2007- August 10, 2007
DUTIES: In charge of supervising a group of children throughout the day, participating in and monitoring activities such as sports and art, and also responsible for the safety of the children.

Advocates for Children
(Practicum-120 hours)
February 11, 2008- May 14, 2008
DUTIES: Job shadow Certified Parent Educators at a number of clients' homes. Also, a duty was to engage with the client as much as possible through activities and evaluations. I was also given a duty to create a handout on child abuse to parents.

Bates College Dining Services, Lewiston, ME
(Dining Service Employee)

August, 2003-Present

DUTIES: Checking students' ID's, janitorial work, refilling buffets, serving students in a fast-paced dining service atmosphere.

Lewiston Regional Technical Center Nursery School (Student/Volunteer)

January-May 2005

DUTIES: Produce lesson plans, assist children ages four, five, and six, with daily routines, help make and distribute snacks, help with departures, maintain overall supervision of children.

Auburn Parks and Recreation Department
(Basketball Coach)

November 30, 2003-February, 2004

November 30, 2004-February, 2005

DUTIES: Provide children, ages six and seven with basic basketball skills, introduce and the game of basketball, help with peer interaction.

Big Brother/Big Sister (Volunteer)

January-June, 2004

September-June, 2005

DUTIES: Be a positive role model; help child with reading and other homework.

Bates College Junior Sports Camp (Camp Counselor)

June -July 2002

June-July, 2003

DUTIES: Camp counselor for seven and eight year olds, running activities, maintaining safety of children.

AWARDS:

Deans List-UMF

Sophomore year 2006-2007

Junior year 2007-2008

Bates College Class of 1997 (Scholarship)

Fall 2005

Fall 2006

National Honor Society

June 4, 2005-Graduation

Lewiston Regional Technical Center

National Honor Society

May 2005

Edward Little High School Alumni Association
(Scholarship)
June 2005

REFERENCES: References provided upon request.